

1 Who are we and what do we do?

We are the Plastic Soup Foundation (a foundation incorporated under Dutch law), (hereinafter, PSF, us and our). PSF is a ‘single issue’ environmental organization that is concerned with one thing: stopping plastic pollution at its source.

In collaboration with Spronck Foundation (Spronck), we have set up The Young Plastic Pollution Challenge (TYPPC). TYPPC is initiated by Spronck and PSF to encourage the development of new, innovative, creative and yet commercially viable products and/or services that help in reducing plastic at the source. Students and start-ups may participate by submitting their idea or innovation on this matter (the Participants). Out of all Participants, three winners will be chosen (the Winners).

Our website www.plasticsoupfoundation.org/challenge (the Website) offers more information about us and TYPPC.
